DID YOU KNOW?

EnglishTek lessons are arranged thematically.

The lessons are grouped into units that evolve according to the learner's expanding horizons. This means that themes nearer to the learner's experiences are tackled first before moving on to broader experiences. Themes about the self and the home come before themes that explore the community, country, and the world. This is one way to make sure that new concepts can be integrated with old concepts already learned.

EnglishTek's approach to language learning is holistic. Each lesson has specific sections devoted to teaching and honing the five macro skills - reading, speaking, listening, writing, and viewing. This way, no particular skill gets left behind.

Each lesson is introduced by LESSON OUTLINES AND TARGETS. These guide the students regarding their learning process. To provide mental break, there is a FUN FACTS section in each lesson. These fun facts help students find the fun in learning! Another way students can have fun is by using their viewing skills in the SNAPSHOT provided in each lesson. Lastly, the lesson ends with a WRITING ACTIVITY that wraps up all the student's learning.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. WHY ARE THERE TWO VOLUMES IN GRADES 1-6?

EnglishTek endeavors to bridge the language domains together. A lesson in the Reading volume is tied together to the lesson in the Language volume by the communicative theme.

2. WHAT IF WE ONLY HAVE ONE BOOK? FOR EXAMPLE, WHAT IF WE ONLY HAVE THE LANGUAGE VOLUME? WHAT IF WE ONLY HAVE THE READING VOLUME?

We made sure that the volumes are integrated but each volume can stand alone. Both volumes are complete with necessary activities that make Reading and Language fun subjects.

3. WHAT IF THERE ARE TWO SEPARATE TEACHERS FOR READING AND LANGUAGE IN OUR SCHOOL?

For those implementing the program as separate subjects, the volumes provide a clear segmentation between the lessons so that the language teacher can move on a topic without waiting for the reading teacher to finish the other. For those implementing English as an integrated subject, teachers only need to progress from the Reading to the Language volume.

In this series, EnglishTek continues to use the Communicative Approach, giving the students more occasions of using the target language. And as EnglishTek adapts to the learning styles of this technologically-driven generation, the principles of Blended Learning continue to influence how lessons are constructed.
